

If you're willing to put in the work, this will work for you — even if you have ZERO prior experience!

This is Yadira's HealthGuys Success Story

Yadira Aguilar | Career Agent, HealthGuys

“Here’s how I went from $10 an hour to $10K months in just 18 months.”*

Yadira Aguilar | Career Agent, HealthGuys

Before joining HealthGuys, I’d never been in insurance or sales. I worked in a warehouse and was raising my two children as a single mom. I was overworked and underpaid when I started searching for a new job.

When I came across a HealthGuys job opening in 2019, I had no idea the $10 an hour role as a translator on sales calls would lead me to $10K months! Plus, the distinction as the top agent in the office.

I vividly remember HealthGuys telling me that if I work hard, the sky’s the limit. I could just sense that you have an opportunity to grow as hard as you want to work. I quickly went from listening and translating sales calls to obtaining my insurance license. The mentoring I received from HealthGuys and my peers were instrumental in me finding success so quickly.

I was used to working at a warehouse where you have to run and clock in because if you didn’t, it would be three strikes and you’re out. Here, it’s relaxed, laid back, everyone’s cool and competitive. We have these screens on the wall that show everyone’s numbers, and it gets people going.

Anyone should be able to easily close 20 sales a week. The leads here are that good! I’ve heard others say they were used to tired, worn-out lead lists and that’s not the case at HealthGuys.

Over the last two years, I’ve seen other agents come in tired of hopping from one agency to another three or four times before finally landing at HealthGuys where they love it. I’m so blessed HealthGuys was my first and last agency.

To be successful at HealthGuys, you just have to be hungry. You just have to want it. I used to wonder, ‘how will I pay for this or that.’ Now, I get to have peace of mind and feel relaxed. You have to want better for yourself. I really doubted myself at first, but I dove in anyway.

In just 18 months after getting into this industry as a complete newbie, to say my life has transformed would be an understatement. I’m finally able to take vacations, can support my family much easier, and am proud of what I do to help my clients.

If you’ve already been in sales, this is the spot to be. If you’re brand new, HealthGuys can help you. If I can do it, anybody can do it.

Yadira was able to scale from $10 an hour to nearly $100K a year in just 18 months — with ZERO industry experience...

Just imagine what might be possible for you.

Are you ready to make your story the next HealthGuys success story?

If you’re ambitious, dedicated and looking for an opportunity with a reputable agency where you can find success as a career agent, partner, or independent agent, then you need to be at HealthGuys. The team is excited to start this journey with you.

Visit Healthguysagents.com to get started today!

*Results not guaranteed.